

Dr. María Victoria Suárez Restrepo

Dermatologist with a rich and diverse international education and work experience in immune-mediated inflammatory diseases and clinical research in Brazil, Argentina, France, and Colombia. Dr. Suárez is the head of outpatient clinics for psoriasis, atopic dermatitis, and hidradenitis suppurative and, she is a voluntary instructor and mentor for dermatology residents at Hospital do Servidor Público Municipal in São Paulo. She has given lectures in multiple conferences, symposia, courses and preceptorship programs. Dr. Suárez has and special interest in Clinical Research and she has been participating as Principal Investigator in clinical trials at International Clinical Research Unit at Hospital Alemão Oswaldo Cruz, São Paulo and PSEG Trials. She is author or co-author of multiple scientific publications and book chapters. Currently President of the Latin American Society of Psoriasis and Immune-dermatology (SOLAPSO DI 2025,2026), active member of the Brazilian Society of Dermatology, member of the Colegio Ibero-latinoamericano de Dermatología, and Councilor of the International Psoriasis Council. She is committed to patients' interests as well been chair of the Scientific Board of the Brazilian Patient Association Instituto Espaço de Vida.

---