

Brief resume dr. L.A.A. (Louise) Gerbens (MD PhD)

Louise Gerbens obtained her medical degree at the University of Amsterdam and via the U.S. Educational Commission for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG) certification. She is currently a resident in Dermatology at the Amsterdam University Medical Centers, expecting to complete her training in June 2021. She holds a PhD in Dermatology from the University of Amsterdam (2018), for which she investigated measurement instruments, datasets and systemic therapies for atopic eczema (pure.uva.nl/ws/files/22834815/Thesis.pdf). During her PhD, she became member of the Harmonising Outcome Measures for Eczema (HOME) initiative, for which she co-led the symptoms domain, and continues to serve as a board member. She also co-initiated the international (and Dutch) TREATment of ATopic eczema (TREAT) Registry Taskforce (treat-registry-taskforce.org, treatregister.nl), which is currently collecting data and has collaborators from 10 different countries.
