

Peter van de Kerkhof

Peter CM van de Kerkhof is chief of the department of dermatology Radboud University Nijmegen Medical Centre since 1991.

He has been working for many years on the pathogenesis and treatment of psoriasis. He has published more than 700 publications in peer reviewed journals and has given many presentations on invitation at international conferences.

He has served as president of the ESDR and EDF and was board member of various international societies. He is the past-president of the International Psoriasis Council.

Current interests are:

Pathogenesis and development of biomarkers for psoriasis

Real clinical practice research

Clinical trials on experimental treatments